NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

OUR PLEDGE REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION:

The privacy of your medical information is important to us. We understand that your medical information is personal and we are committed to protecting it. We create a record of the care and service you receive at our organization. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice will tell you about the ways we use and share medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain duties we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical information.

OUR LEGAL DUTY:

Law Requires Us to:

- Keep your medical information private.
- Give you this notice describing our legal duties, privacy practices, and your rights regarding your medical information.
- Follow the terms of the current notice.

We Have the Right to:

- Change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time, provided that the changes are permitted by law.
- Make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all medical information that we keep, including information previously created or received before the changes.

Notice of Change to Privacy Practices:

Before we make an important change in our privacy practices, we will change this notice and make the new notice available upon request.

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION:

The following section describes different ways that we use and disclose medical information. Not every use or disclosure will be listed. However, we have listed all of the different ways we are permitted to use and disclose medical information. We will not use or disclose your medical information for any purpose not listed below, without your specific written authorization. Any specific written authorization you provide may be revoked at any time by writing to us at the address provided at the end of this notice.

FOR TREATMENT: We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, or other people who are taking care of you. We may also share medical information about you to your other health care providers to assist them in treating you.

FOR PAYMENT: We may use and disclose your medical information for payment purposes. A bill may be sent to you or a third-party payer. The information on or accompanying the bill may include your medical information.

FOR HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS: We may use and disclose your medical information for our health care operations. This might include measuring and improving quality, evaluating the performance of employees, conducting training programs, and getting the accreditations, certificates, licenses and credentials we need to serve you.

ADDITIONAL USES AND DISCLOSURES: In addition to using and disclosing your medical information for treatment, payment and health care operations, we may use and disclose medical information for the following purposes.

Facility Directory: Unless you notify us that you object, the following medical information about you will be placed in our facility directories: your name, your location in our facility; your condition described in general terms.

Notification: We may use and disclose medical information to notify or help notify; a family member, your personal representative or another person who is responsible for your care. We will share information about your location, general condition, or death. In case of emergency, and if you are not able to give or refuse permission, we will share only the health information that is directly necessary for your health care, according to our professional judgment. We will also use our professional judgment to make decisions in your best interest about allowing someone to pick up medicine, medical supplies, x-rays or medical information about you.

Research in Limited Circumstances: We may use medical information for research purposes in limited circumstances where the research has been approved by a review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of medical information.

Funeral Director, Coroner, Medical Examiner: To help them carry out their duties, we may share the medical information of a person who has died with a Coroner, medical examiner, funeral director, or an organ procurement organization.

Court Orders and Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: We may disclose medical information in response to a court of administrative order, subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process, under certain circumstances. Under limited circumstances, such as a court order, warrant, or grand jury subpoena, we may share your medical information with law enforcement officials. We may share limited information with a law enforcement official concerning the medical information of a suspect, fugitive, material witness, crime victim or missing person.

Public Health Activities: as required by law, we may disclose your medical information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, including child abuse or neglect. We may also disclose your medical information to persons subject to jurisdiction of the Food and Drug Administration. We may also, when we are authorized by to do so, notify a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or otherwise be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease or condition.

Victims of Abuse, Neglect, or Domestic Violence: We may use and disclose medical information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may share your medical information if it is necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health or safety of others. We may share medical information when necessary to help law enforcement officials capture a person who has admitted to being part of a crime or has escaped from legal custody.

Workers Compensation: We may disclose health information when authorized or necessary to comply with laws relating to workers compensation or other similar programs.

YOUR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS:

You Have a Right to:

1. Look at or get copies of certain parts of your medical information. You must make your request in writing.
2. Request that we place additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your medical information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in the case of an emergency).
3. Request that we change certain parts of your medical information. We may deny your request if we did not create the information you want changed or for certain other reasons. If we deny your request, we will provide you a written explanation. You may respond with a statement of disagreement that will be added to the information you wanted changed. If we accept your request to change the information, we will make reasonable efforts to tell others, including people you name, of the change and to include the changes in any future sharing of that information.

Acknowledgement of Receipt of Notice of Privacy Practices

OUR OFFICE POLICY REGARDING PATIENT FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

We ask that you read and sign the following to acknowledge that you have been advised of your financial responsibility for medical services provided.

Coverage: I understand that I am responsible for knowing if a procedure is a covered benefit or an exclusion on my insurance policy.

Medicare Patients: We bill Medicare directly for you. However, you are responsible for charges applied to your deductible, any co-insurance, or charges not covered by Medicare. Medicare Part B automatically forwards your claim to your secondary insurance carrier if they have a contract with the carrier. This is known as a "crossover" or "medigap". We will bill secondary insurances as a courtesy; however unpaid portions are the patients responsibility.

Participating Insurance: Our office accepts several commercial insurance carriers such as Blue Cross/Blue Shield and we bill them directly as a courtesy to you. Prior to your visit, check with your insurance company to see if our office and physician is a provider under your contract plan, and if you need a referral authorization prior to your visit or procedure. We accept payment for covered services from the contracted insurance plans in accordance with our contracts. You are responsible for applicable co-insurance, co-pays, and deductible amounts as well as payment for services that are not covered by insurance such as cosmetic procedures at the time of your visit.

Non-participating Insurance: If we are not a provider for your insurance carrier and you wish to see our physicians, you are responsible for payment of all charges at the time of service. You are then responsible for submitting the claim to your insurance company for reimbursement.

Uninsured: All charges are to be paid in full at the time of service. Providing quality medical care for our patients is our primary concern. We are more than willing to provide that care within the guidelines of your insurance plan. It is however, your responsibility to know and understand those guidelines. It is also your responsibility to seek medical care with physicians participating in your plan when possible. Remember that insurance may not cover all fees. To be fully aware of your benefit limitations, please read your insurance policy thoroughly or talk with your insurance representative. You may be billed separately for laboratory analysis if we are required by your insurance to send specimens to an external laboratory.

We accept payment in the form of check, cash, Visa, or MasterCard.

I understand that I have financial responsibility for payment of medical services provided and hereby assume and guarantee payment of all expenses incurred during my office visit, diagnostics, and procedures. Should legal action be required to secure payment of this account, I agree to pay the legal expenses incurred by this office or an agency acting on behalf of this office.

I have read and understand this financial policy and agree to accept responsibility as described.
